HILO NEWS.

The Election Returns From Hawaii.

[From the Hilo Record.]

Election day passed off very quietly here in town, and all the other districts as far as heard from. The Hilo Road Board seemed to cause almost all the interest apparent in and around the Court House. We congratulate Hilo on having a new Road Board in which the people have confidence, and we believe that one of the first things the Board ought to do is to commence and prosecute faithfully the work on the road between Onomea and Hakalau. Until that is done and a good horse trail made the whole distance, the other roads must only be attended to enough to keep them fit for travel. Below will be given the number of votes cast in all the districts of this island, as far as heard from:

The names of the foregoing list are classified according to the best information which we have been able to obtain. Further knowledge may of course necessitate some changes. Several of the Hawaiians placed in the Conservative list are doubtful, but no names are there except of men who beat the regular Liberal candidates, and who so far as we learn are not in sympathy with the Bush-Wilcox faction.
